EXPLOSION OF GAS.

"ALL THROUGH THE WAR."

Superintendent Moger after the excitement had subsided put a number of laborers to work to clear away the remains of the explosion. He said that he was removed about fifteen or twenty feet from the central point of the explosion, but the force was so great that he was lifted from his feet and hurled a considerable distance. "I have been all through the war," said the superintendent, "but I never had such a realizing sense of danger before. I thought that the entire building was blown up and was toppling about our ears."

thre building was blown up and was toppling about our ears."

Chief Fisher and a contingent of the Fire Department were soon on hand, but their services were not necessary. The chief made an investigation into the cause of the explosion. There were no lights burning in the office, and it is supposed that a leak occurred in the gaspipe between the ceiling and the floor above, the escaping gas spreading and being confined in the intervening space. At noon workmen on the floor above lighted a fire to warm their coffee, and in this manner, it is said, the gas became ignited, causing the explosion.

CUBAN REVOLUTIONISTS.

ORIGIN AND PROGRESS OF THE REVOLUTION IN CUBA DESCRIBED BY A SYMPATHIZER-THE MOVEMENTS, PROJECTS AND PROGRESS OF

THE "PATRIOTS." TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-In view of the interest taken at the present time in the internal affairs of Cuba I trust you will permit me to lay before your readers some facts relating to the present rising, the elements of the movement, "its strength and purposes from a "revolutionary" point of view. The official promulgation of the Zanjon treaty of peace, concluded in Cuba between the few remaining members of the revolution-ary government founded by Carlos Manuel de Cespedes in Yara, found the Cuban nationalists abroad in a chaotic condition, without any leader commanding confidence and respect, because of the very injudicious appointment early in the first revolutionary period as general agent in this country of a person who, though occupying a very prominent position because of his immense inherited wealth, was not qualified to acquit himself with credit either himself or the interests intrusted to his agency. Dissensions were rampant wherthere existed a nucleus of Cubans. It is still fresh in the minds of people the alacrity with which the revolutionary representation of Cuba adhered to the Zanjon stipulations and the apostacy of Aldama, Mestre, Cisneros, Rivero, Ylla and others of less note. Some returned to Cubs under Spanish protection, while a few made a pretence of remaining in exile, but covertly submitted to all kinds of humiliations in order to recover their property, prominent among them the General Agent, who was rewarded for his loyalty by the promulgation of a royal decree em-anating from Madr.d, by which all his sequestered estate in Cuba, amounting to several millions, part thereof in slaves, was unconditionally restored to him, with ample permit to return also and enjoy it.

thereof in shaves, was unconditionally restored to him, with ample permit to return also and enjoy it.

THE NEW BEVOLUTION.

At this time of detection in high official quarters there sprang up an element of non-conformists, and a solemn protest was publicly recorded in New York which found an echo in Key West, Jamaica and other plates coinciding with the organization of a Cuban revolutionary committee, headed by General Calisto Gascia Yfiguez, just then returned from suffering a protracted captivey in a Spanish fortress. A new organ was started called La Voz del Pueblo, under the auspices of this committee. Meanwhile the colomal government was not idle. It-sued orders to all consuls in the United States and claewhere to conciliate the Cubans, offering free passage at government expense, and even seut the notorious Cuban lawyer Figueros to New York to encourage the dejected exiles. But the scheme failed most miserably. The committee set to work with untiring energy and soon found itself surrounded by a few men of determination and influence. Emissaries were at once sont to Cu'a, Jamaica and Key West, where the wavering spirit of the exile colonists was encouraged and strengthened. Clubs were formed and a perfect secret organization set in motion. Lamadriz, Mestre, Crombet, Rodriguez and other patriots in Cuba adhered to the protesting phalanx and proselytizing on a grand scale began. Everything was ready when last August Crombet, Rodriguez and others were thrown into a dungeon at Santiago de Cuba on a denunciation from the Spanish Consul at Kingston, Jamaica. With a dozen others they were sent to Spain. A reign of terror commenced. Throughout the island many cold-blooded assassinations of suspected natives were reported. All this had a tendency to precipitate events, and early in September Guillermon Moncada and Macco, Jr., raised the standard of rebellion in Guantanamo among the slave gangs of the plantations.

The Refellows Flatted.

ported. All this had a tendency to precipitate events, and early in September Guillermon Moneada and Maceo, Jr., raised the standard of rebellion in Guantanamo among the slave gaugs of the plantations.

This was followed by an uprising in Santiago, Bayamo, Holguin and Jiguani, the hot beds of revolutionary ideas. These events intensified the harshness of the measures taken by the authorities. Arrests and deportations to Spain became the order of the dry, with a few outrages against naturalized citizens of the United States, like those of Colonel Barnett, Moñoz and Font, at Matunzas. Cientuegos and Trinidad. The uprising continued in Camaguey, Sancti Spiritus and Remedios, all the ablebodied Cubans mysteriously disappearing from the cities and towns. The landing of General G. Benitez with a squad of officers and some aminution in November gave renewed impulse to the movement, and, through the blundering of Spanish officials of stripping the other sections of the Island in order to mass all their available troops in the eastern province, a golden opportunity to revolutionize Camaguey and Las Cinco Villas was offered, which Benitez and Mestre weront slow in turning to good account, so that in less than six months this second outbreak for independence has extended and covers over two-thirds of the whole territory of the Island with almost as much force as in 1877-8.

THE FORCES OF THE REVOLUTIONISTS.

THE FORCES OF THE REVOLUTIONISTS.

From official sources it is ascertained that the force of the revolutionists number over five thousand men in the Eastern Province, under Moncada and Macco, Jr., while those in Camaguey and Las Cinco Villas foot up over three thousand. The colored clement has entered into this new war in large proportions, but perfectly identified with the whites, under whose orders they mostly serve with course and submission to discipline.

Thus far Spain has concentrated 14,000 men of the regular army. All this show of force has tailed to disconcert the Cubans or to interfere with their plans. The

THAT DECEPTIVE BUGGY.

Mr. Nathaniel Jarvis, Jr., yesterday morning made an affidavit in the Tombs Court charging Thomas Tillman, colored coachman, of No. 1 West Fifteenth "$110. Brewster top improved buggy, with fine harness, blanket, robe, whip; cost $465 last September. See coschman, I West 15th street, near 5th avenue." Mr. Jarvis then states that, seeing this advertisement, he called at the place named and met Tillman, who showed him a buggy which he (Tillman) said was of Brewster make, the property of a Mr. Wallace, his employer, who in September last paid $465 tor it, but was now willing to sell it for $110. On the strength of the colored man's representations he bought the wagon, which proved to be an inferior article. He then took it to a stable on the corner of Seventh avenue and Twenty-second street, and was told there that he had been swindled.

In the afternoon Mr. C. M. Britton, of the firm of Brewster & Co., mace an afflavit to the effect that he had seen the buggy sold to the complainant, that it was not the make of Brewster & Co. or of any reputable firm in the city, and that at the most it was not worth more than $60. Several other gontlemen tostified similarly. Tillman was then arraighed. His counsel asked for an adjournment and it was granted by the magistrate. The defence is that Tillman did not sell the wagon as of Brewster make and made no faise representations.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Another "Bear" Raid on Stocks.

A WEAK AND EXCITED MARKET.

The Bank Statement Very Unfavorable.

WALL STREET, SATURDAY, Dec. 20-6 P. M.

For the greater part of to-day the stock market was sluggish, irregular and drooping. The "Dismai Jemmys" who thrive upon declining prices were in high feather, while speculative optionists were "down on their luck," foreseeing, as they did, nothing more promising in the market than a future of sackcloth and ashes. As matters shaped themselves there was certainly little inducement to venture in upon the long side of the account. Although the market opened measurably firm and something better than the feebleness of last night's prices had led one to expect it would do, it failed of permanent support and before midday weakened perceptibly. There was a general selling down of pretty much everything upon the list. To the surprise of investors and speculators in the Vanderbilt stocks these properties proved to be the weakest of the lot. Lake Michigan Central and Western Union all exhibited an extraordinary limpness of backbone, and from sheer sympathy imparted a sort of spinal meningitis to the rest of the list. It was rather a shock to the operators who pin their faith upon the "Vanderbilts" that Lake Shore, with its excellent dividend and resplendent report, should behave so disgracefully as to sink below par, as it did at one time to-day. There was a good deal of natural curiosity to get at the why and wherefore of this unexpected decline, but it was only gratified by the street belief that Mr. Vanderblit has been for some days back syringing the market with stock, and that Mr. D. O. Mills has been passing into other hands the 50,000 shares or so which he had become possessed of early in the year. The pressure of the so-called Vanderbilt stocks and the bad bank statement, which shows nearly $4,000,000 decrease in legal reserve, exerted a depressing effect, and during the middle of the day made matters decidedly gloomy. During the last hour, however, things grew more cheerful and the market closed with great firmness and with a marked recovery in prices. The most noted improvement was in the San Franciscos (which bounced up this afternoon quite as speedily as they had bounced down yesterday) and in Lake Shore, Michigan Central and Erie, each of which was tractionally better. Kansas and Texas closed at 29%, or nearly at the highest point of the day, being well supported under the belief that the bill to open the Indian territory will pass both houses without seri-ous opposition. C., C. and I. C. advanced to and closed at about 20. In connection with this stock we learn that the bonds sold by the committee on Thursday were taken by parties in the interest of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. This, together with the large increase of earnings, indicates that the Pennsylvania people intend to settle the litigation. The final decree of Judge Harlan is to be rendered on Monday in the Supreme Court at Washington, and by it it is expected that all claims and counter claims between the litigants will be definitely settled. It is more than probable that a compromise agree ment will be also entered under the auspices of the Court immediately after the rendering of the decision, thus ending a long litigated suit. The Philadelphia market was heavy and lower, although Pennsylvania Raiiroad was well supported by pur-chases attributed to friends of the company. Reading sold down to 3316, Northern Pacific common to 29, do. preferred to 53%, Lehigh Valley to 51% and Lehigh Navigation to 36%. The market is reported as being generally demoralized at the close, with prices at the lowest points of the day. The closing prices of Reading were 33 a 33% and of Pennsylvania 49% a 50. At a meeting of the Caribou Mining Com-pany, held a day or two since in this city, Messrs. Brayton Ives, C. J. Osborn and R. P. Flower were elected directors. Mr. Brayton Ives was subse-quently elected to the presidency of the company in place of Mr. A. G. Curtin resigned.

Total sales at the Board to-day were 337,763 shares, against 265,287 shares yesterday and 197,570 on

On the Stock Exchange the bad news from Afghanistan and the decided tightening of the money market made the gambling element desirous to narrow its commitment. Prices by Thursday showed a general relapse, and the full was considerable in many classes of securities. Thursday. Following is an epitome of the day's On Friday, however, there was a tendency to take a more favorable view and a considerable recovery transactions:- High- Low- — Closing. — ensued. American railroad securities are now varying irregularly, indicating that the momentum of the recent great expansion has at last been arrested. Nor would it seem improbable that a relapse should ensue, for the traf-fic returns of the United States railroads have not been so elastic as to warrant the enormous improvement during the year, in which some securities have actually been trebled in market value. St. Louis Tunnel shares are 10 higher, St. Louis Bridge bonds 5 and New York Central Railroad shares 1, but Central Railroad of New Jersey shares are 5 lower and Erie and Reading shares 2. The result of the recent meeting of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad rental trust holders has been to raise the 1872 trust 6 and to lower the 1873 trust a like amount."

A GOOD PLAN.—ANYBODY CAN LEARN TO MAKE Amoney rapidly operating in stocks by the "Two Unerring Rules tor Success" in Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular. The combination method, which this firm has made so successful, enables people with large or small means to reap all the benefits of largest capital and best skill. Thousands of orders in various sums are pooled in one vast amonat and co-operated as a mighty whole, thus securing to each shareholder all the advantages of the largest operator; immense profits are divided nonthly; any amonant from $25$ to $5$;00 or more can be used successfully. New York Baptist Weekly, September 20, 1878, says:—By the combination system $15$ would make $75$, or 5 per cent; $50 pays $50, or 7 per cent; $100 makes $1,000, or 10 per cent on the stock during the month, according to the market. Frank Lesslie's illustrated News paper, June 29:—The combination method of operating stocks is the most successful ever adopted "New York Independent, September 12:—The combination system Is founded upon correct business principles, and no person need be without an Income while it is kept working by Messrs. Lawrence & Co." Brooklyn Journal, April 20:—"Our editor made a net profit of $101 25 from $20 in one of Messrs. Lawrence & Co. combinations." New circular mailed free explains everything.
